Sunday School Convention.

The Lincoln County, North, Sunday school convention met at the Methodist church in Hershey on Friday, July 16. The following were on the program:

Rev. Jack, Rev. Brinks, Chas. Stitzer, Mrs. Martin, of Sutherland; Rev. De Lee of Paxton; Rev. Griffith of Maxwell, Rev. Johnson of Hershey; O. O. Wood, Rev. J. L. Barton, C. W. McGraw and J. H. Edmisten of North Platte and W. H. Kimberly and Miss Brown of Lincoln. The subjects were ably discussed, and the delegates enjoyed every minute. There were twenty-two schools represented with an average of 123 in attendance at each session.

The following officers were elected for next year: President, J. H. Edmisten, North Platte; vice president, O. H. Eyerly, Hershey; Bert M. Reynolds North Platte, secretary and treasurer. Maxwell was chosen as the place of the convention next year. The following resolution was unanimously adopted by the convention:

"Resolved, That we extend to the citizens of Hershey our sincere thanks for the splendid entertainment furnished the delegates, to the M. E. church for the use of their building, and to Mr. Kimberly and Miss Brown for the encouragement and vision they have brought us as Sunday school workers."

November 7th has been designated by the state officers as Go to Sunday School Day in Nebraska and they ask the co-operation of every Sunday school in the state. They want to have at least 500,000 in Sunday school on that day. Send your secretary's name to B. M. Reynolds, North Platte, Nebraska.

Lincoln Highway Picture Party.

Several cars loaded with enthusiasts left at 5:30 this morning to meet the party at Gothenburg, and a dozen or more cars will assemble at the state farm at half past nine o'clock to receive the party and escort them into town.

National Consul H. C. Osterman of the Lincoln Highway leads the party which consists of four cars and twelve operators and assistants.

Several views of the experimental farm will be taken, and a number of the city, including a full length view of Dewey, which it is aimed to have crowded with cars.

Keep Away the Strain.

Your sight may be good yet your eyes may be in the most urgent need of help.

Ever see the big built, robust man pause in his swinging stride along the street, clap a hand to his heart and drop dead?

We have. He looked to be the healthiest man on the street, yet a tiny heart rivulet clogged and the machinery stopped, all because of a little over exertion.

If the little piece of glass Optometrist places before your eyes keeps the strain away, it may in a similar way postpone the advance of more serious "break-down" that comes to the human machine when over-loaded or overworked.

C. S. CLINTON,
Registered Optometrist.

"The Spoilers," Rex Beach's novel, was presented in motion pictures at the Keith last evening and attracted a full house at the first performance and a good sized audience at the second. The presentation of this story of Alaska in movies is intensely interesting, the scenes being exceptionally good and much more extensive than portrayed in the book or given on the stage. Kathryn Williams and William Farnum take the leading roles and they are well supported.

Dr. and Mrs. Walter Crook entertained one hundred and fifty of their friends at a farewell reception at their home Friday. Guests were received at different hours from three o'clock in the afternoon until eleven in the evening.
